If you join another health insurance program, such as at your place of employment, you are responsible for unenrolling from the National Health Insurance Program (you will not be automatically unenrolled by your employer or Toshima City).

- Unenrollment can be done by post, internet, or in person.
- You must unenroll within 14 days of changing to a new insurance provider, etc.
- Delays in unenrollment may require you to pay National Health Insurance premiums for the unused period.

Demand Notice

You have not paid your National Health Insurance (NHI) premiums. Please make a payment by the date specified in this reminder. If you do not pay by this date, under Japanese law, your assets may be audited and seized up to the unpaid amount.

1. If you have a complaint regarding this administrative disposition, you can issue a request for examination to the Tokyo Metropolitan National Health Insurance Examination Committee (at the Tokyo Metropolitan Government Building), within three months from the day after you became aware of this administrative disposition. (However, even if it is still within three months from the day after you became aware of this disposition, if more than one year has passed from the day after the day on which this disposition was issued, it is no longer possible to issue a request for examination.)

2. Only in the case in which there is a court ruling on the request for examination detailed in 1. above, within six months from the day after you became aware of this court ruling on the examination request concerned, it is possible to petition the court for revocation of the original disposition with Toshima City as the defendant (in Litigation, the representative of Toshima City is the Toshima City Mayor). (However, even if it is still within six months from the day after you became aware of the relevant court ruling, if more than one year has passed from the day after the day on which the ruling was issued, it is no longer possible to petition for revocation of the original disposition.) However, if any of the following cases (1) to (3) apply, it is possible to petition for revocation of the original disposition, even without a court ruling on the request for examination.

(1) There is no court ruling within three months of the day after the day on which a request for examination was made.
 (2) There is urgent necessity to avoid significant damage that would arise due to the disposition, the execution of the disposition, or the continuation of procedures.
 (3) Other just reason(s) for not receiving a court ruling.

Please pay using the locations/methods listed here.
