Guide to Toshima City After-School Daycare Club

— FY2021 Application —

This facility is for children who are unable to receive proper care after school due to their parents' need to work, illness or other reason. Through an environment characterized by interaction with others, the children are taught to be independent, and are provided with assistance in receiving a sound educational background.

List of Daycare Club Facilities

To use this facility, either your address must be in Toshima City or your children must attend a Toshima City elementary school; and you must be unable to provide after-school care for your children due to reasons below.

1. Work (*1)
2. Illness or injury (currently recovering)
3. Physical or emotional disability
4. You provide nursing care for family members in the same household
5. Other reason similar to 1-4 above

Eligible children and parents/guardians

(*1) You are not eligible if you work only a small number of hours per day and/or a minimal number of days per month. Conditions of use differ according to 1st ~ 3rd grade, handicapped student or over 4th grade.
